

7. The executive director of student achievement and professional development shall select and chair a committee including appropriate representation of teachers, administrators, media specialists, and parents or other citizens. This committee shall hear all parties involved in the complaint and render to the complainant its decision in writing within 10 school days following the hearing.
8. The complainant shall be informed that any further consideration of the matter